

WEBINARS: Regulatory environment. What a life science company need to expand in Germany and the EU May 4-5, 2021

Entering the German market – practical advisory and a route to follow for life sciences companies.

The programme:

DAY1: Overview of German life science market. Pharma, biotech, cell & gene therapy

9:00-13:00

An overview of why Germany is interesting to enter for life science companies

Gregor Kemper, Associate Chemicals & Healthcare GERMANY TRADE & INVEST

An overview of the centralized European regulatory procedures by European Medicines Agency

Prof. Xavier Luria, CEO DDR Medic and former Head of Safety and Efficacy of Medicines at EMA

Germany-specific regulatory procedures

Prof. Xavier Luria, CEO DDR Medic and former Head of Safety and Efficacy of Medicines at EMA

German market access

Prof. Matthias P. Schönermark, founder and managing director SKC-Beratung

DAY 2: Medical device & Digital Health

9:00-13:00

Overview of European regulatory landscape for medical devices and digital health

Stefan Bolleiningger, CEO be-on-quality GmbH

Overview of Germany's regulatory environment & go to market strategies for medical devices and digital health

Stefan Bolleiningger, CEO be-on-quality GmbH

Deep dive into the Germany's fast-track process for Digital Health Applications (DiGA)

Stefan Bolleiningger, CEO be-on-quality GmbH